Our dear Friends,
Loving greetings from all at Mizpah Home.

We know that you delight in receiving these newsletters from us. We cherish this opportunity of sharing with you the goodness that the Lord has bestowed on us.

Our annual excursion normally takes place in the month of December, but was brought forward this year. The children thoroughly enjoyed their visit to the Scripture Union campsite at Mahabalipuram. The highlights were their hours of fun on the beach and in the swimming pool. Their laughter and screams of delight washed away the stress and strain of the last year, along with the salt and grit they rubbed from their eyes. It was heartening to see them spending their pocket money on trinkets as a token of their affection for each other. This was a learning experience too. The historical places we visited made the lessons learnt in class come alive – they saw gigantic stone carvings that have stood the test of time right before their own eyes. Their subsequent visit to the zoo may have been tiring, but it was also delightful. The train journey back home was a blessing in itself – we saw a bunch of tired, but happy children stretch out in their own space and sleep in contentment and gratitude for an experience they won't forget for a long time to come.

The long awaited answer to our prayer for a separate building for our boys above the age of 12 has now be granted. We cherish the hope of constructing the dormitory before the next academic year.

Your prayer has been our strength and the presence of the Lord our confidence in all these matters concerning our work. We pray the blessings of God on your lives and His peace in your hearts as we all press towards the mark of our high calling in Christ Jesus.

With every blessing in Christ Jesus,
